Nixon Touring Soviet Industry

Vice President Says Welcome Is Warm

SVERDLOVSK, Soviet Union, (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon took a long look today at heavy industry in Siberia, visiting a huge tube rolling mill and a copper mine near this city of 600,000 on the east slopes of the Ural Mountains.

High spots of the nearly 11-hour schedule were tours through the Pervouralsk mill and the Degtyarsk mine. Nixon also took a long drive through the area surrounding Sverdlovsk, a center for the production of strategic metals, armaments, chemicals and heavy machinery.

Despite the hecklers who dogged his footsteps Wednesday in Novosibirsk and again in Sverdlovsk, Nixon said his welcome in the Soviet Union has been warmer than he expected, especially in Siberia, which has been a closed region to most foreign visitors. Thousands turned out in Novosibirsk and Sverdlovsk to applaud him.

Nixon canceled a dinner in his honor Wednesday night to work on a speech he will give from Moscow Saturday night over the Soviet radio and television network. In it he will urge that Siberia be opened up to more foreign visitors and to more ideas from outside.

Nixon told hecklers here in Sverdlovsk that Western radio broadcasts to them are being jammed and that they do not know the truth. The Soviets ought to have the right to hear both sides, he said, urging them to listen to his broadcast.

The hecklers' themes in both Novosibirsk and Sverdlovsk were markedly similar, and Nixon's press aide, Herbert G. Klein, hinted the Soviet government had primed agents with hostile questions.

The hecklers usually asked why the United States maintained bases around the Soviet Union and why the United States wouldn't ban nuclear weapon tests at once.

Explosion Shakes Connecticut Towns

PORTLAND, Conn. (AP) — Exploding chemicals shook two communities early today and lit up the predawn sky as flames destroyed a chemical distributing depot. No deaths or injuries were reported.

Thirteen tanks of industrial chemicals exploded in the blaze, which a fire official said apparently had started accidentally.

The biggest blast, which knocked sleepers from their beds here and in Middletown across the Connecticut river, came when a 13,000-gallon tank of alcohol went off.

The flames at times burst like rocket blasts 500 feet high. Flaming debris was scattered over a wide area.

C. Albert Mugford, manager of the company, Phillips Bros. Chemical Co. Inc., estimated the loss at approximately half a million dollars.

The firm, which employs 14 persons, is in effect a warehouse. It receives chemicals, recuts them and reships them. The depot housed about 1,000 drums of industrial chemicals.

The fire was discovered by a passing truckdriver.

Portland is about 17 mile south of Hartford, the state capital.

Liner Repaired After Collision

Fog Delays Sailing Of Queen Elizabeth

NEW YORK (AP)—The Queen Elizabeth, world's largest luxury liner, was set to sail today as repairs were rushed on her hull following a collision with a freighter during patchy fog in New York harbor.

There were no injuries to passengers or crew aboard the outbound 83,000-ton Queen and the inbound 10,460-ton American Hunter. The ships came together about 3:30 p.m. Wednesday near the entrance to Ambrose Channel about 1½ miles off Coney Island. Both vessels ere damaged above the water line. At the helm of each were trained harbor pilots.

The mishap in the freakish fog — no visibility in some areas and good visibility in others—led to the harbor being shut down for 2½ hours.

Repair crews went to work on the three-foot hole in the starboar bow of the liner immediately after dusk, when tugs brought her back to Pier 90 where she had lifted anchor just six hours earlier.

The impact was felt only as a dull thud aboard the Elizabeth. Few of the ship's 1,959 passengers knew what had happened.

The American Hunter, just arrived from the Elizabeth's home port of Southampton, carried a crew of 50 plus 6 passengers. The freighter suffered a two-foto crack in her bow. The Hunter is owned by the United States Lines.

E. Seymour Bell, general manager of the Cunard Line, told newsmen that a fog curtain suddenly closed in before the crash.

He said both of the Queen's radars were functioning an showed no other ships closer than 1.6 miles.

The Queen was sounding her fog horn steadily, Bell said, when "the other ship suddenly appeared out of the fog on the starboard bow."

12 Teamsters Under Arrest

Action Comes After Cincinnati Brawl

CINCINNATI (AP) — A dozen members of a pro-Hoffa faction of strife-torn Teamsters Union Local 100 were arrested here early today after they had seized control of the union headquarters following a brawling fistfight.

All 12 were arrested on warrants obtained by officers of the local charging trespassing and disorderly conduct.

The officers were elected last winter on a platform in opposition to Teamsters International President James R. Hoffa.

The rival "rank and file group" has been seeking to form a new local.

The fight started Wednesday night when the officers of the local sought to postpone a hearing on charges against one of the rebels. The 16-man executive committee finally left the building after being told by the rebels to resign or get out.

Police, called to the scene, made the arrests only after the officers

'Wells of Hope' Net $295 to Aid Retarded Children

Incomplete returns of donations at the various "wells of hope" for retarded children show $295.95 has been collected.

Salem residents had donated $145.35 during the first three days of the two-week drive. East Liverpool reports a three-day collection of $137.13.

Other communities reporting are East Palestine, $11.30 for two days, and Columbiana, $13.47 for two days.

Donations at Lisbon, Wellsville and Salineville had not been reported.

The wells are part of a county-wide drive to raise $20,000 in funds for the work of the Columbiana County Council for Retarded Children. The drive is being conducted by John Billiter of Salem, president of the organization.

Mrs. Robert Starbuck, teacher at one of the two schools for retarded which are operated by the council, said the major portion of the donations will be collected through letters sent to residents and industries throughout the county.

The donations are being sent to the group's treasurer, Howard Hochmann, postmaster at Lisbon. Persons wishing to make contributions to the organization are bequested to send them to Hochmann at post office box 42 in Lisbon.

The council hopes to raise enough money to be able to expand its program of aiding the mentally retarded so that it can help those both above and below the present age limit of 6 to 18-year-olds, Billiter said.

Freighters Scrape In New York Harbor

NEW YORK (AP) — Two inbound freighters, forced to halt outside the harbor when it was shut down because of the Queen Elizabeth-American Hunter crash Wednesday, scraped sides in fog near the scene of the luxury liner-freighter collision.

The Ocean Dinny and the American Forwarder reported no injuries, but both dropped anchor.

Braun Gets 1 to 20 In Ohio Penitentiary

Emerson R. Braun, 27, Salem contractor, was sentenced at Lisbon Wednesday to 1 to 20 years in the Ohio Penitentiary by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp. His request for probation was denied.

Braun was found guilty by a jury on March 31 of uttering and publishing a forged instrument when he altered a $10,000 performance bond for a Youngstown project to a $174,000 bond so that he could get a Washingtonville sewage project. His appeal for a new trial was overruled April 24. He then requested probation.

Braun was indicted by January grand jury and has been in the county jail since March 6 when the bonding company requested to be released from his $5,000 bond after a check he wrote to cover the bond proved worthless.

Khrushchev Asks Geneva Wind-up

Red Premier Seeks 'Summit' Meeting

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet premier Nikita Khrushchev has called on the Big Four foreign ministers to finish their work in Geneva and make way for a summit conference.

"We believe that it is high time for the heads of government to take on this difficult job," the Soviet premier declared in a speech published today.

Khrushchev spoke Tuesday at a worker's rally in the Ukraine.

The Soviet leader did not suggest a time limit for winding up the Geneva conference but said that the foreign ministers had already accomplished "positive work." He said the ministers should make "fresh efforts to search for mutually acceptable solutions and agree on what they can agree."

"Then let the heads of government discuss the most difficult questions of fundamental importance," he said.

He repeated previous Soviet statements that the U.S.S.R. is not trying to set a deadline for the Allies to end their occupation of time limits is not of paramount importance," he continued. But he warned that the Soviet Union will not "underwrite an agreement perpetuating the occupation regime that now exists in West Berlin."

Khrushchev said the Soviets are prepared to consider any "constructive" Western proposal. But he coupled this with another call for direct negotiations between East and West Germany on the issue of German reunification, a key Soviet demand which the West has steadfastly rejected.

Adjacent Rural District to Benefit

Rogers Area Gets New Phone Service Sunday

Improved telephone service comes to a 30-mile square area of eastern Columbiana County Sunday when the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. puts its new $125,000 Rogers exchange into operation, benefitting some 450 subscribers in the Village of Rogers and parts of the townships of Elkrun, Fairfield, Madison, Middleton, Unity and St. Clair.

A new brick building at Rogers, housing up-to-date dial equipment will replace out-moded facilities which have been in use since 1935. The present exchange is located in one room of an old frame dwelling.

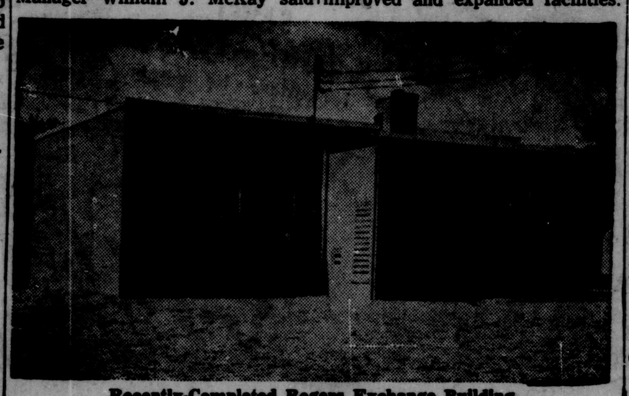

New two-letter, five-fgiure telephone numbers have been assigned to each subscriber. Known as the Canal 7 central office, the new telephone numbers all will begin with CA 7 and be followed by four more numbers.

Ohio Bell's Salem Commercial Manager William J. McKay said that a new telephone directory soon will be issued to subscribers, listing all the new telephone numbers, along with instructions covering changes in dialing procedure.

After Sunday it no longer will be necessary for subscribers in East Palestine, New Waterford and Rogers to dial a code ahead of the telephone number when calling between those communities. Only the two-letter, five-figure number will be required.

Also becoming a thing of the past will be rural and four-party service, Mr. McKay said. All subscribers in the exchange will have either individual lines or two-party service. The desire for this improved service was made known by the subscribers themselves in a recent survey conducted by the telephone company.

McKay said the growth of the area in recent years warranted the company's investment in the improved and expanded facilities.

Bicycle-Car Mishaps Leave Two Injured

Girl, 12, Seriously Hurt At Boardman; Boy, 10, Is Luckier

Bicycle - auto accidents Wednesday injured two children — one seriously — in mishaps in Boardman and Calcutta.

They were two of the five traffic accidents investigated by Canfield and Lisbon posts of the Highway Patrol. Three drivers were arrested.

Twelve-year-old Katherine Morris of Youngstown is in serious condition today at Youngstown South Side Hospital with a possible fractured skull. The bicyclist was injured as she pedaled across Rt. 224, three-quarters of a mile west of the route's junction with Rt. 7 in Boardman.

Charles Wiggers, 35, of 1421 Ridgewood Ave., Salem, told patrolmen the girl suddenly started across the road in front of him. Patrolmen are still investigating the accident which occurred at 5:20 p.m. yesterday.

Ten-year-old Robert G. Brandt of East Liverpool was treated by an East Liverpool physician after the youth and his bicycle were struck by a car driven by Richard A. Davis. The boy suffered a cut scalp, contusion of the head and abrasion of the right foot, patrolmen said.

The 30-year-old East Liverpool driver told investigators the boy rode down Maple Lane and into the path of his auto as he drove south on Cricket Lane in Calcutta about 3:20 p.m. yesterday. The motorist was not held.

In other Columbiana County accidents, Sandra E. Gaydof, 16, of Lisbon was cited to court after she lost control of her car on a wet Rt. 154 about 3:30 p.m. The auto ran off the right side of the road about three miles east of Lisbon and overturned, patrolmen said. There was considerable damage to the car.

Pito Principessa, 74, of Ellwood City, Pa., was arrested for being left of center following a two-car accident caused by a narrow bridge and tried to stop. His car started sliding sideways and col-

Dems Dispute Interpretation

GOP Hope Bouyed By Hawaii Voting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unexpected victories in Hawaii's voting bouyed Republican hopes today that their party may be on the comeback trail.

Although Democrats disputed the interpretation, the GOP national chairman, Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, said the results point to Republican victories elsewhere in 1960. His party elected a governor, lieutenant governor, a United States senator and a majority of state senators.

Morton said the results in Hawaii demonstrated that hard work, significant support from labor and the voters' response to 'good government" will put the Republicans back in business in next year's presidential and congressional elections.

However, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas emphasized that Democrats had taken two of the three seats at stake in Congress. These include one senator and the lone House member. Democrats also held on to control of the state House of Representatives.

Johnson said it was not surprising that the Republican appointive governor, William F. Quinn, had defeated Democrat John A. Burns, who has been Hawaii's nonvoting delegate in Congress.

Johnson said Quinn "had plnty of time to build up his position" and should have won "in an area which, until recent years, has been overwhelmingly Republican anyway."

He promised a rousing welcome in Congress for Democrats Oren E. Long, elected to the Senate, and Daniel K. Inouye, who won the House seat.

Hiram L. Fong was the Republican electe to the senate. He and Long will determine by drawings later the length of the terms they will serve.

Massillon Solicitor Seeks Padlocks for 9 Gambling Spots

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — Action to permanently close nine alleged gambling places will be started today, Solicitor Richard F. Maier announced.

Permanent padlock orders will be sought from Stark County Common Pleas Court against eight of the places. The Ninth, Jessie Toles Billiards, will be forced to move from city-owned property, Maier said.

Arrests have been made in all the establishments at one time or another for possession of gambling devices.

Only one, George Elum of the Elum Music Co., has been tried. He pleaded guilty to possession of gambling equipment and was fined $500 in Massillon Municipal Court. A 10-day jail sentence was suspended.

Places named in the padlock petitions besides Elum's are Schneider's Cigar Store; Meinhart's Cigar Store, which was bombed in May; and Obie's Lunch, Dragomir's Smoke Shop, Mike Cigar's Cigar Store, Boston Cigar Store and the T-B Specialty Co.

Meanwhile, in Canton, Prosecutor Norman J. Putman was ritical of the method used by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle in ordering a special grand jury investigation of gambling and vice in the county.

"It's unfortunate that falure to contact local authorities, together with the careless handling of newspaper publicity from Columbus, has created an unjust inference. The state is discrediting the work already done here.

"This pattern of conduct is inconsistent with the statement that this investigation (special grand jury) is non-political," he added.

However, he said, "We'll give them 100 per cent cooperations."

Big Four May Suspend Talks On Wednesday

No Agreement Seen On Berlin Question; 'Summit' Meeting

GENEVA (AP) — The Western Allies planned today to ask the Soviet Union to agree to a long recess—beginning next Wednesday —in the Big Four foreign ministers' conference. The Allies obviously hoped that an agreement to renew negotiations would suspend the Soviet threat to West Berlin.

There was no indication Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko would agree to a recess.

There was no expectation on the Western side that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's speech in the Ukraine, made public today, promised any change in the Soviet position that might make it worthwhile to continue negotiations now.

Although Khrushchev called for renewed efforts by the foreign ministers an said the Geneva conference had made progress, he offered no modification of the Soviet demands which the West has rejected.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd reportedly would like to persuade his Western allies to agree to a summit conference to follow up the present Big Four meeting. But there presently is no prospect the United States and France will agree that sufficient progress has been achieved here to justify going to the summit.

Barring a sudden turnabout by the U.S.S.R. on some crucial issue in the Berlin negotiations, most Western diplomats now believe the foreign ministers meeting will break up in failure without agreement on either Berlin or a summit gathering.

The Wednesday eadline was set on the initiative of Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, who said he is going to attend the meeting of the Organization of American States opening in Santiago, Chile, Aug. 12 and wants a few days in Washington to prepare for that conference. Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville agreed to his proposal.

Following a long luncheon meeting between Herter and Gromyko, Assistant Secretary of State Andrew H. Berding announced that "Mr. Gromyko and Mr. Herter agreed that we would wind up by Wednesday of next week."

Robbery Suspects Release Hostage

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — A pair of suspect bank robbers held an Oklahoma farm boy hostage at pistol point in an auto Wednesday, then surrendered meekly after a nervous three-hour seige.

No bullets were fired. It was a battle of words. Bob Pitcock, 20, the hostage, was released unharmed.

Tulsa County Sheriff Dave Faulkner identified the suspects as Sylvester Hutchinson, 21, and Thomas J. Starr, 25, both of Tulsa, and both Negroes.

The climax came after loudspeaker pleas by several relatives and friends of the suspects.

Pursuit of the two men began early Wednesday after the robbery of a bank at Coweta, Okla.

Pitcock said he was seized with his automobile at his farm home near Broken Arrow, Okla., several hours later.

The car was halted at the east edge of this city by a roadblock.

Ohio Lawmakers Did Good Job

Assembly Leaders Inexperienced

By DUANE E. CROFT
News Staff Correspondent

This is the second of three articles by Duane E. Croft, The NeNws legislative correspondent, putting the recent session of the 103rd Ohio General Assembly in perspective and pointing up the underlying causes behind this abnormal tug-of-war.

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The broad sweep of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's program was one of the factors that made the 103rd Ohio General Assembly one of the roughest and toughest in the memory of veteran Statehouse observers.

Another factor, cloely allied with the first in many ways, was the inexperience of the Democratic leadership in both houses.

Thi is not to say the leaders were incompetent. Far from it. Making allowances for the many problems they faced, most of them performed well.

ESPECIALLY deserving of recognition are House Speaker James A. Lantz of Lancaster and Senate President Pro Tem Frank W. King of Toledo. They gained a lot of respect from Republicans as well as Democrats for their quiet, sincere efforts to do a good job and for their basic sense of fair play in matters political.

But the Democrats had not been in the majority in the Ohio Legislature since 1949. There is a vast difference between providing "loyal opposition" as the minority party and accepting the responsibility for putting across a constructive program as the majority party.

Compounding the problem was the fact that the Democrats chosen for the top leadership jobs were not the men who had served as the party's minority leaders in previous sessions. Most of thoe were frozen out in DiSalle's pre-session maneuvering to wrest control of the party away from Cleveland.

THE REPUBLICANS, on the other hand, were led by Rep. Roger Cloud of Bellefontaine, who was House Speaker in the previous two sessions, and Sen. C. Stanley Mechem of Nelsonville, who had served two terms as president pro tem (majority leader) of the upper chamber.

Still another complication was the fact that in taking control for the first time in a decade, the Democrats brought in many "freshman" members, who must rely upon the leadership for guidance even more heavily than the veterans do.

Most of the Republican members in both houses had served at least one previous term, and many have become almost permanent fixtures in the legislative halls.

The Democratic inexperience showed up in many ways.

THE GENERAL SENSE of close party discipline characteristic of Republicans was often missing among the Democrats. This, admittedly, is traditional with the Democratic party, but it probably has heldom been as obvious—outside Congress—as it was in the 103rd General Assembly.

As a result, caucuses on major party police issues sometimes took hours as the leadership tried to weld its members into a voting whole.

Indeed, it became something of a joke on the GOP side of the aisle that when the Democratic floor leader asked for a five-minute recess for a caucus, the Republicans could plan on going to their hotel rooms for a couple of hours' sleep.

As the session wore on, the lack of disciline virtually became a way of doing business in the Senate, where Sen. Ray Miller Jr., son of the Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) Democratic chieftain, grabbed every opportunity to work his political spite against Toledoans DiSalle and King.

TIED TO THIS shortage of discipline was another sign of inexerience. Sometimes the leaders squeezed themselves into hard and fast positions where the result was inevitably a loss of prestige when they could not garner the votes to support their positions.

Democracy is based upon compromise. A maxim of political action in democracy is that a man always should allow himself room to bargain so he can back down without losing face if need be.

Perhaps the most apparent evidence of inexperience in the leadership was its reliance on the governor for direction in its actions.

EVERY GOVERNOR tries to ake a hand in the legislative fate of his program, just as the President does with Congress. This is especially true when the governor and the majority in the Legislature are of the same party. It was certainly true with the 102nd General Assembly, when C. William O'Neill was governor.

But fundamentally the Legislature is an independent branch of the state government, acting as a "check and balance" against the executive and in turn "checked and balanced" by the executive.

Faced with an aggressive and far-ranging program from DiSalle, the leaders of the 103rd often seemed to be wary of making any move unless it had been cleared with the governor's office first.

This in turn tended to put committee chairmen in the middle as they tried to work their way through stacks of policy or a mini-stration legislation.

And that tended to slow the legislative process to a snail's pace.

IN THE LATTER DAYS of the session, it was not uncommon to hear a legislator complain:

'Let's go ahead and do what we think ought to be done. If the governor doesn't like it, he can veto it."

Whether the Democrats will get another crack at runing the General Assembly in 1961 will be a matter of constant speculation between now and Election Day in November 1960.

The leaders of the 103rd hope so, of course. And one of the big reasons is that they would like the chance to show that, with one session's experience under their belts, they can run things as smoothly as the Republicans do.

NEXT: How the legislators themselves had a hand in making the 103rd a rought, tough session.

Plan Called Absurd

Senator Young Raps Bomb Shelter Idea

WASHINGTON (AP) — Interested in building your own civil defense shelter? Don't, says Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio), the idea, he says, is absurd.

This is the crux of Young's latet attack on what he considers is an absurdity—spending millions of dollars on atomic raid shelter that won't, he feels, save lives.

The proposition of do-it-yourself atomic shelters was recently made by people working for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

Rockefeller is a Republican, Young a Democrat. So Young sees reason for pleasure in all this.

Young told the Senate the other day: "May I, as a Democrat confident in the certain election of a Democratic president in 1960, express delight over the prospect that a foremost candidate for the Republican nomination for president apparently now advocates forced civil defense shelters upon American homeowners."

What Young says he regards as silly in shelter for New Yorkers is the fact that millions of people in New York City proper live in apartments.

These New Yorkers, he says, would have scarcely any warning of a missile being fired from Russia (he figures 18 to 20 minutes) and almost none at all if one was fired from a submarine.

Says Young: "I suppose that someone living on the 20th floor of an apartment building would probably, from the time the first warning is given, get down to about the sixth floor before an atomic warhead would explode.

"Even should he survive, there would be a fallout in the neighborhood and throughout the entire area."

Of course, Young says, if the people in New York want to build these shelters at an expense he estimates at two billion dollars they can go ahead and do so.

"If such an expenditure is forced upon taxpayers anywhere there would be no worthwhile result," Young says. "Therefore, I hope no person in Ohio recommends such a waste of taxpayers' money."

Young claims he has evidence that demonstrates some of the authorities in Civil Defense don't take the idea of build-your-own-shelter seriously themselves.

After reading a news story out of Ohio the other day, he triumphantly announced:

"Not one Civil Defense official in Ohio has erected a shelter in his own basement or back yard."

Conservation Unit Stocks Farm Ponds

Farm pond owners in the Columbiana Soil Conservation District recently have received fish for stocking their ponds.

The new stocking ratio is 1,000 bluegills and 200 bass per acre, with fish being supplied by the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, according to Herman Reuter, conservationist with the U.S. Soil Conservation Service.

This new stocking ratio involves more bass and bluegills than were previously used and will provide better odds for maintaining proper fish balance than any ratio used thus far, according to Granville Smith, field biologist with the soil conservation service, Columbus.

The SCS provides technical assistance for installing a pond properly, when it is part of a complete basic soil and water conservation farm plan, Reuter said.

Little Rock Board Passes List of Rules

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The Little Rock School Board Wednesday night adopted rules and regulations for assigning pupils to public schools under the Arkansas pupil placement laws.

The board plans to open the four public high schools Sept. 8 on a basis of limited segregation. The placement laws will be used to minimize desegregation.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus closed the high schools last year to block integration.

Criteria for assignment of a pupil include such things as psychological effect of a particular student being assigned to a particular school, pschological effection other students, moral standards, and the possibility of a breach of the peace if a student is assigned to a certain school.

The availability of transportation and distance the student would have to travel also will be considered, the board said.

Fifty-five Negroes have enrolled at Little Rock's three previously all-white high schools.

Bad Check Passer Meets Sudden Death

WASHINGTON (AP)—Frederick Emerson Peters admired people of intelligence, position and reputation. So he spent a lifetime meeting them, conversing with them, and handing them worthless checks.

That lifetime came to an end Saturday in a hotel in New Haven, Conn. Peters, 73, died of a cerebral hemorrhage, leaving behind a long record that the FBI considers one of the strangest in the annals of American crime.

A stickler for detail and a glib talker, Peters liked to pose as a high government official or a celebrity or a highbrow and then pass off a check just big enough to live decently. His checks often netted him less than $10, rarely more than $50.

In his adventures, he used such names as Franklin Roosevelt II, Gifford Pinchot II, Theodore Roosevelt Jr., and Philip Wylie.

Not all his activities caused damage. Posing as administrative secretary to the undersecretary of agriculture, he once called on an instrument firm in Rochester, N.Y. and, in the course of conversation, suggested a change in the design of a rain gauge.

The company lost $60 to Peters on a worthless check. But, after he left, it changed the design as he suggested and improved the gauge.

In his long career, Peters passed checks in almost every part of the country. He served sentences in several federal penitentiaries and state prisons.

He was born in West Salem, Ohio.

Never So Little For So Much

The new rumor from Geneva is hopeful again. The Western Powers think they have detected favorable signs in something about Andrei Gromyko's behavior. Observer think the Britsih may be willing to maintain a united front, that French "grandeur" may have found a way to advance itself without new complications, that the United States may have found a formula for getting out of the rigidity of the Dulles formula of no concessions.

But if it now were to turn out that the foreign ministers had not been marking time at Geneva after all, the net result still would justify an appraisal that never had so much effort been expended for so little.

The oiginal pattern of the Geneva problem has not been changed an iota. Because of geography, a wartime error in strategy and postwar delay in tying up loose ends, the Soviet Union and its dependent, East Germany, hold Berlin as a hostage.

The Western Powers, though they have the right to occupy the Western part of the city and are prepared to assert it with vigor if challenged by the Soviet Union, are at a disadvantage in position. They could not hold the city if the Russians really wanted to make their military position untenable, without a resort to general war—and it is unlikely that they would consider the game was worth that big a candle.

This has been the bargaining point of the Soviet Union in calling for a showdown. It still is. The question has been whether something might be gained by a meeting of the heads of states, meaning principally a meeting between President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev. In all probability, the meetings between Vice President Nixon and the Russian premier will have as much bearing on this as the long-drawn-out conference of the foreign ministers at Geneva.

The problem from the beginning—which was late last November, when the Kremlin said it was calling for a showdown—has been to offet Russia's obvious advantage of position with proof of the unity of the Western Powers in the face of a threat of war.

More effort has been spent on achieving Western unity than on overcoming the Russian ultimatum that the time has come to do something about Berlin. World War II has been over for more than 14 years, and if the Kremlin hadn't issued an ultimatum the Western Powers should have issued one of their own.

This Thing Is Getting Off the Track

If will be a ghastly shame and a disservice to decency if the prominence of James R. Hoffa and Robert F. Kennedy in hearings before the Senate Rackets Committee has converted a public issue into a private feud.

The fact that the young counsel to the committee has chosen the president of the Teamsters Union as a Carthage symbol—something that must be destroyed—has given Hoffa a good reason to talk about Kennedy in the same vindictive terms.

But Kennedy and Hoffa are not the two sides of the issue. With due respect for the importance of each in his field, they are not even appropriate symbols of the issue. They are getting off the track.

Kennedy has too much privilege and too much legal training in his background to be a proper symbol for people who believe labor unions must be made responsible for the misbehavior of their officials.

Hoffa has too much bully-boy background and too much flamboyance in his union career to be a fitting symbol for people who are trying to make unionism fit harmoniously into a permanent pattern of U.S. life.

Men like these are ideally suited for followers who must think of every issue as a conflict of personalities. But followers like these are not likely to generate the strong convictions needed to stabilize thought and action about the legal responsibility of unionism.

They are the same hallow thinkers who thought World War II was a crusade against Hitler and Mussolini and who think now that the cold war is against Khruschev. They are the superficial patriots who thought democracy could be saved by witch hunts, or by putting someone in jail because someone else made an unsupported allegation.

At this moment, the best thing that could happen to the national problem of what to do abou making unions bear more responsibility for their good conduct and the public welfare would be for Robert Kennedy and James Hoffa to get lost in their exchange of recriminations and threats and counter-threats of libel suits.

They are not the issue. The issue is whether labor unions can be brought under the same kind of laws that regulate business enterprise. There is only one Hoffa, only one Kennedy. The rest of us are numbered by the tens of millions, and all of us have a stake in the outcome.

Let's Avoid It At All Costs

Nothing has been avoided more systematically than the problem of cities in the United States, thanks to rural domination of state legislatures and Congress.

But a proposal in Congress to offset this neglect by setting up a new Cabinet-represented department in the federal government is falling flat on its municipal face.

A "department of urbiculture" to offset a Department of Agriculture, as has been proposed, simply would mean one more vast roster of paper shufflers to fill, with an enormous headquarters in Washington and branch offices crammed with busy-bee bureaucrats in every city of the country.

It would mean politicians running for office on promises to strong-arm more cash for city voters out of state legislature and the national legislature. It would mean a secretary of urbiculture fighting for the sanctity of a budget request before the House Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Appropriations Committee. It would mean padding the budget by a third in the hope of having it cut down only a fourth and thereby leaving a cushion of cash for extravagance.

Eventually, it would mean the counterpart of crop subsidies for urban constituents—so many dollars a cubic foot for not heating the upstairs bedrooms, or money on the barrelhead for putting on a coat of paint they would have had to put on anyway.

And by the time that happened, no urbanite would dare to open his taxpaying mouth about the scandals of agricultural subsidies that are practically forced on farmers by politicians hungry for votes that are freely offered for sale because all the city people would be suckers for the same thing.

For once in a national lifetime, the United States will think twice before starting something it would not know how to stop. Being kind to the cities that produce he bulk of the revenue does not entail being brutal to taxpayers.

Attendant: It's not as bad as you think, George. You are here as a symbol of good will.

George: Have they set up a cherry tree in Moscow and sent me a hatchet?

Attendant: No.

George (relieved): That's something. What's that bronze bust over there on the wall?

Attendant: Abe Lincoln. And near it is a painting of John Adams.

George: That helps. But I'm sure they feel as uncomfortable and dizzy here as I do.

City Auditor Makes Report

In reply to a recent newspaper item by the Superintendent of Utilities that followed my report of deficit spending in the city water and sewage departments, the reason given was pipe extensions throughout the city.

All these figures given in this report were not operating figures and were misleading to the public, and also made my report of revenues and expenditures look as though my records were incorrect. My records show every transaction made in the city finances, all monies received by the City go through my office, and all expenditures are paid by check and made by the auditor, a complete record is kept of these and at the end of each year a complete financial report is made and sent to the Auditor of the State.

To begin with the item stated that $54,000 had been spent for pipe extensions over a period of six years. My records show the entire cost for 6½ years, ending on June 30, 1959, to be only $35,671. In 1956 the Replacement Fund transferred $6,784 to the pipe extension fund for extensions, so that the amount really spent from actual revenue was $28,887 and not $54,000. In 1957, the Replacement Fund paid the County Commissioners $5,023 for the Water Department's share of the pipe extension on Sunset Blvd.

In 1953 Council passed a resolution authorizing the Auditor to pay for pipe from the Utility Construction Fund in the amount of $9,-139.87. This purchase was made illegal in 1952 without the certification from the auditor that the money was in fund for the payment for this contract. According to law, the auditor cannot make payment of a contract entered into without this certification without a Resolution of City Council authorizing the Auditor to make payment.

This pipe was used for the extension of water lines on E. Eleventh St., and should have been paid from revenue and not from the bond fund as authorized by Council.

In January 1953, the Replacement had a balance of cash and investments of $59,889. Of this amount $50,000 has been invested through my office and has earned over $8,500 in interest in a period of 6½ years. The balance of cash and investments as of June 30, 1959 was $54,000 which shows expenditures of $14,000 over this period. This fund cannot be used for operation of the water department and if at anytime it is used in whole or in part for replacements or extensions it must be reimbursed at the rate of 15 per cent of the gross yearly revenue to the amount of $50,000 — the amount that must be carried in the fund at all times.

The Debt Service Reserve Fund was established when the first mortgage bonds were sold. $66,000 was transferred from the sale of the bonds and $8,089 was the premium received from the sale of the bonds, making a total of $74,-089. This money is invested by the trustee of the mortgage. It is a reserve fund equivalent to one year's interest and principal of the first mortgage.

In 1952 Council passed a resolution requesting the trustee of the first mortgage to transfer all monies in the excess of $66,000 to the Replacement Fund. This transfer was in the amount of $9,246. If at anytime this fund is used for the redemption of bonds or coupons the fund must be reimbursed at the rate of 25 per cent of the gross yearly income to a balance of $66,-000 that must be carried at all times.

The Construction Fund, with a balance of $12,657.75, is the balance of the Second Mortgage bonds after the completion of the Filtration Plant and cannot be used for the operation of this department. This balance has been carried since 1956.

The figures I used in my recent report did not disclose where the additional monies came from for the Sewage Department. January 1, 1956 the department carried a balance of $23,819.31 and in 1956 and 1957 transfers were made in the amount of $67,888, this being the money received on the 65 per cent sewer rental.

On June 30, 1959, the cash balance was $23,120 so that this period of operation of the sewage department expenditures were approximately $44,000 over the revenue.

The present outstanding indebtedness of the Water Department as of this date is $1,332,000 and the Sewage Department $690,000.

At a recent meeting of Council Mr. Linder accused me of not notifying Council four years ago of the deficit spending in the Utilities Funds. The finance committee certainly knew of this situation as they do make the budget each year in July, and also appropriate the money for all departments the first of each year and this subject was brought to light on several occasions.

I was also accused by Mr. Linder to have had other motives than to inform Council of this situation at that time, the only other motive I had was to inform the citizens of Salem who pay to keep these utilities in operation.

Mrs. Helen Coyne,
City Auditor.

What Good Could Come from 'Summit' Talks

Many people who watched the Boorish, arrogant Khrushchev on television a few nights ago wondered why such a dictator and bully shoul be humored so much by the American government In view of the deliberate distortions of the Nixon - Khrushchev repartee in the officially controlled press and radio of the Soviet Union, the question that naturally arises now is what possible good could come from a summit meeting with such an irresponsible mind.

David Lawrence

There is nothing really new being uncovered nowadays about the Khrushchev personality. He has talked for hours with various American officials and other prominent men from Western countries.

He is shrewd and skillful in debate. He is used to having his own way and can't understand why the United States doesn't knuckle under at his command.

HIS POINT OF VIEW hasn't changed a bit since he first grabbed power in the Kremlin.

He insists that the way to ease tensions and prevent crises in the world is for the United States to do what he says. There is no middle ground, as he sees it, between capitalism and what he inaccurately calls socialism. In the end he is sure one will triumph and he is confident it will be Communist imperialism rather than the system under which America and the West have thrived.

Most of Khrushchev's visitors, including perhaps Vice President Nixon, come away with the idea that maybe it would be a good thing to "educate" the Soviet Premier by arranging for him to come to the United States for a visit.

This is a fallacy. Khrushchev can no more be educated than Hitler could have been. The two men are very much alike. There is one little difference — Khrushchev secretly orders his murders and tortures of dissenters, while the Nazi dictator did it openly and boasted about it.

Khrushchev is responsible for the execution or exile of thousands of Hungarians. The present Hungarian government is his slave and captive, as also are the other neighboring countries in eastern Europe. But Khrushchev resents any mention of "captive nations."

What Khrushchev lacks is a sense of decency and dignity and an appreciation of the other fellow's viewpoint. He is as absolute as a czar.

The impression has been widely spread that he has an inferiority complex and wants to be invited to stay at the White House so as to show off to his people that he is accepted as a world leader. Even after he did this, he probably would argue just as vehemently that what America and Europe need is Communism. He has an obsession on the subject of world conquest.

TO ACCORD KHRUSHCHEV the kind of invitation he wants is to give him a chance to make propaganda and belittle the very country that would be treating him as its guest. He would distort the purpose entirely on his return home and boast to his people that even America recognizes his prowess in a position of leadership in the world.

In the Soviet Union Khrushchev isn't popular with the people outside the ruling Communist group who are familiar with his personality. He needs prestige at home. One way to get it, he thinks, is to be accorded attention by the heads of other governments.

He enjoys being sought after. He nevertheless plays constantly at the game of trying to divide the Western Allies by appealing to thei materialistic interest in trade relationships.

What should the West do about such a dictator? Domestic politics in Britain and a tendency on the part of some British Labor party people to seek a close working arrangement with the Kremlin complicate the problem for the west.

As for France, Gen. de Gaulle declares he wouldn't come to the United States for a summit meeting and says it should be held in Europe if at all. So, even if the United States were agreeable to a meeting with Khrushchev in this country for the summit, French objections would prevail.

Then what about a summit meeting of only President Eisenhower and Nikita Khrushchev in the United States? This would arouse suspicions among our allies. It's true that Prime Minister Macmillan went alone to Moscow and Khrushchev showed his bad manners by insulting his guest in a public speech.

THE BRITISH LEADER, incidentally, was busy for weeks afterward explaining that he wasn't making any separate deals. So it seems that if Gen. de Gaulle will not come, there is no likelihood of a summit meeting in America. If one is held, it will be in Europe and President Eisenhower would attend reluctantly and then only if progress has been made through the four foreign ministers toward a settlement of the Berlin problem.

Judging by the way the Soviet Premier has handled the visit of Vice President Nixon, nothing substantial would result from a summit meeting.

Khrushchev doesn't understand that an American president isn't a dictator and can't make deals. And the only kind of deal the Soviet Premier wants is of the appeasement and surrender variety. This he will never get as long as Dwight Eisenhower is in the White House.

Summer Is For Kittens

By TRUMAN TWILL

Wha follows is light summer reading.

It comes under the same theory as light summer eating, said theory being that the mind and the body require less to sustain them when the temperature is high.

No one should read "War and Peace" during hot weather or eat roast beef and browned potatoes lathered in rich, brown pan gravy. That's the theory.

It is better by far to munch cold meat washed down with iced tea and to read about the vagaries of kittens. Some readers do not care for cold cuts and kittens, but that is unimportant.

I care for both, also for "War and Peace" and roast beef. I think it is nonsense to say things must be one way or the other — a thinking fallacy known as "exclusivism," which causes foolish people to believe everything must be one way or the other. The truth often is that things can be both ways; they can be true-false, bitter - sweet, sad-happy, idealistic-realistic, light-heavy etc.

This has been a vintage year for kittens — two litters down and one cooking, with time for two more before Labor Day. The cat census has been hovering around a dozen as a consequence of so much fecundity.

The problem is doors.

There are four doors on our house. The first thing kittens pick up from their elders is how to high-tail it into the house through an open door.

The high tail is the secret. A hoizontal tail is a screen-door-bent tail. And because a cat's move is to go into concealment as soon as a house has been entered, the problem is how to keep it from entering.

This is where the doors become important.

The ploy in the game of Kitty-Flitty that has been developed to keep the cats at bay is to make them guess which door is about to open.

First, a distraction is created at a door that is not about to open; this draws the cats to that door. Then while they are tense, the ploy-maker skitters on tiptoe to another door and slips outside.

It is more difficult to get in. The ploy in this instance, if there are two play-makers ranged against the cats, is for one to put on a show about intending to enter by a given doo while the other veers off toward another door. This makes it possible for one person to enter without cats. Thereupon this person makes a noise as if about to leave by that door, attracting the cats to that door, letting the first person enter the house catless.

If only one person is playing against 12 cats, he has hopeless alternatives — to make a run for it or to sweep the deck of all cats present with a sweeping side kick, which never is 100 per cent successful. The best way is to enter in pairs and to leave the same way, because two humans are smarter than a dozen-odd cats.

Or were . . .

There are enough cats to stand guard at every door. They have split up. No matter who goes in or out, the cats get their opportunity. The bigger ones already are opening doors, themselves. Winter is coming — time for roast beef, browned potatoes, "War And Peace" and snug living conditions. Summer is for cold cuts, iced tea and cats with no place they can call their own.

COLUMBIANA — Contracts are expected to be let Aug. 8 on a First Methodist Church building and improvement program which was first projected in late 1957 when a concentrated $175,000 fund drive was conducted.

Plans call for a two-story addition on the south side of the present edifice at the southeast corner of S. Main and Pittsburgh Sts., and remodeling of present educational facilities.

A demolition crew completed work this week on razing two large old residences which stood on the proposed building site. Also razed was a smaller structure used for a tin shop. A small cottage on the rear of the property will be moved.

Leaders in the building campaign hope for construction work to start in early September.

Longshoremen May Share In Benefits Of Automation

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Probably the first major labor contract to share the benefits of automation with workers has been agreed upon by leaders of 17,000 West Coast longshoremen and waterfront employers.

The agreement was reached late Tuesday by negotiators for Harry Bridges' independent International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU) and the Pacific Maritime Assn.

The new contract, subject to ratification by both sides, would run three years.

In return for the union's promise to furnish competent personnel to man labor-saving devices, the employers agree to contribute a 1½-million-dollar fund during the first year of the pact as payment for the men's share of increased productivity.

Other gains reported include:

Wage raises of 11 cents an hour for longshoremen and 12½ cents for clerks, bringing the latter up to longshore parity within three years.

An added one-cent per hour employer contribution to the welfare fund if its balance drops below $100,000.

Coffee breaks.

The rates bring dockers' hourly pay to $3.08 and clerks to $2.93.

Asphalt Floor Laid Down In U.S. Exhibition

MOSCOW (AP) — An asphalt covering to settle the dust was laid at the U.S. National Exhibition today as the Soviet press began raising its own clouds of dust about the whole show.

The anvil chorus of adverse Soviet press comment was reflected in headlines like these 'Don't Mislead!" "Is This American?" and "All that Glitters Is Not Gold.

This last was a reference to the big aluminum dome that is tinted gold and forms the centerpiece of the U.S. exposition in Sokolniki Park.

2 New Departments Formed

DiSalle Gave Ohio Government New Look

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Legislature didn't give Gov. Michael V. DiSalle his broad reorganization bill, but the record shows he managed to give state government a new look anyway.

In barely more than six months in office, DiSalle succeeded in persuading the Legislature to set up two new state departments and change the operating setup in another. He also talked the lawmakers into changing the complexion of two key commissions.

He also got a new commission—the Civil Rights Commission which will enforce the state's policy of prohibiting employment discrimination because of race, creed or national origin.

And the revised state government will function under a new state motto which the governor did not request: "With God All Things Are Possible."

DiSalle's big reorganization pitch was for a law giving the governor the authority to combine, divide, transfer and otherwise shake up state departments and divisions, subject only to veto by both Legislature houses. He described his proposal as an attempt to put into the state government the same policy and procedure used in federal government reorganization.

The new departments will be the Department of Economic and Industrial Development and the Department of Personnel.

DiSalle has forecast creation of the Department of Economic and Industrial Development may be one of the major accomplishments of his administration.

It will be controlled by a $14,000-a-year, cabinet-level director assisted by a number of advisory committees.

In asking the Legislature in his state of the state message to create the new department, DiSalle pointed out to the lawmakers:

"As the state's population grows and we know that it will, the problems of government can be met only with an increasing economic expansion. This expansion is not one that can be taken for granted."

The new Department of Personnel will replace the two-member Civil Service Commission. It will have a $14,000-a-year director and a three-member board of review. Board members will serve full time and receive $10,000 a year.

Creation of the new department was recommended by the Legislative Service Commission after a study which the commission said indicated Ohio was behind the times in personnel management practices.

The Department of Liquor Control got a face-lifting when the Legislature gave the director full control over all state liquor stores, including the final say on prices. The Board of Liquor Control previously held this authority.

The board itself was affected by a change in the law to require that the chairman be an attorney. Salaries of board members were raised from $6,000 to $10,000 a year, but they are required to devote full time to their duties. The salary of the chairman was increased from $6,500 to $11,000. The law also was changed to permit the members to be reimbursed for their expenses in traveling on board business.

Another feature of the liquor control bill is that liquor sales are banned only on primary and general election days—not special election days.

The Legislature shifted the Ohio Racing Commission from a four-member bipartisan commission to a five-member commission split 3-2 on party lines. The change gives DiSalle a chance to name an entirely new commission and authority to remove any member. The chairman will be designated by the governor. Commission salaries are unchanged.

The Pardon and Parole Commission was transferred from an independent status to the Division of Correction in the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction. Its membership was increased from three to five. Salaries were increased from $8,400 a year to $12,000, but the new law makes it clear all members will be required to devote full time to their duties.

Another major reorganization proposal failed to make the grade. It would have resulted in a Utilities Commission shakeup. DiSalle proposed to create a Utilities Department with a cabinet-level director, leaving the commission as a board to review the director's activities.

In addition to the broad reorganization he achieved, the governor succeeded in getting pay raises for all of his cabinet officers.

The Legislature also created a State Canal Land Authority with authority to dispose of unused and unseeded state lands, a move which will relieve the Legislature of the burdensome task of voting each two years on scores of bills authorizzing piecemeal sale of the lands.

Also created was an Ohio Water Commission to move forward in the field of water use and conservation.

The Legislature set up a survey group to study Ohio's need for more state medical colleges.

Lawmakers also modernized the pharmacist-licensing law and provided for examination and licensing of physical therapists.

Columbus Day was established as a legal holiday.

The Legislature also decreed that women who perform equal work with men must receive equal pay.

Symington Tops Poll Of Ohio Officials

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) topped Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) in a presidential preference poll of Ohio Democratic county officials announced today by Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio).

Of 96 Democratic county chairmen and secretaries who answered questionnaires sent them, Young said 40 picked Symington as first choice for the party's 1960 presidential nomination, compared to 33 for Kennedy.

Nine picked Adlai E. Stevenson and eight chose Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey got three votes, Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of California two, Gov. G. Mennen William of Michigan one and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) none.

Kennedy is regarded as almost certain to enter the Ohio voting even though the primary results are only advisory and not binding. Symington has made it clear he has no present intention of entering any primary contest.

Young's poll showed 49 of the Democratic chairmen and secretaries felt that economic policies—including action on debt, inflation, budget and taxes—would be most important issue in next year's presidential contes.t Foreign policy, including the aid program, was picked by 23, national defense by 13 and "a demand for a strong presidential leader" by 11.

Ex-Model Trips Herself Up At Murder Hearing

Miss Tregoff, 22, and her lover, Dr. Bernard Finch, are charged with murder in the July 18 shooting of the wealthy surgeon's 33-year-old wife, Barbara.

Miss Tregoff was arrested in court Wednesday shortly after she sobbingly admitted at Dr. Finch's preliminary hearing that she loved him and had sexual relations with the 41-year-old surgeon.

The hearing continues today.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Fred N. Whichello said Miss Tregoff "tripped herself up" when she testified Tuesday about a leather case found near the Finch home after the shooting. Investigators described the case as a 'do-it-yourself murder kit." It contained a hypodermic needle, sedatives, bullets, a knife and rope.

Miss Tregoff surprised authorities by testifying she took the case from her car at the Finch home when Dr. Finch asked her to get a flashlight. She identified some of the contents as household goods the doctor bought for her and said Finch carried weapons whenever he had narcotics in his car.

"She read in the newspapers about the murder kit and decided she had to account for it," Whichello said. "In the previous questioning, the bag never was mentioned.

"It is quite apparent now, when you take the entire picture of evidence and the relationship between the pair, that her testimony shows an active participation and aiding and abetting in this murder."

Mediators Working To End Steel Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal mediators continued efforts today to break the steel strike deadlock. They also kept an eye on the aluminum industry where scattered strike threats remain.

Contract extensions have been agreed upon in the bulk of the aluminum industry, but contracts expire Friday midnight in some segments where no extension has been made.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, flew from New York to Washington Wednesday to confere with Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell. The secretary is serving as President Eisenhower's fact-finder in the 16-day-old strike which has shut down almost 90 per cent of the nation's steel production.

BOND SALES SHOWN

Sales of Series E and H savings bonds in Columbiana County during June reflected the competition facing the governmental bonds in the field of investments. June sales were $161,979, considerably lower than the $210,148 in sales for the same month in 1958.

Traffic

lided with the other auto as it came off the bridge, Principessa said. There was minor damage to both autos.

Floyd R. Andrews, 25, of Wellsville was injured at 3 a.m. yesterday on Rt. 39, when he lost control of his auto and it overturned after shooting off the left side of the road.

He received a fractured rib and cuts on the chin and shoulder in the accident which demolished his auto. He was arrested for reckless about 7.5 miles west of Wellsville. He was treated by a physician.

Teamsters

of the local had obtained the warrants.

Lt. Col. Robert Wells, in charge of the police detachment, ordered the union headquarters closed shortly after 1 a.m. He said a police guard would remain on duty but that the regular officers of the local would be allowed to open up for business as usual today unless there is more violence.

The 12 arrested were released on bond pending Police Court action this morning.

Robert Morris, co-chairman of the "rank and file" committee, told newsmen he had notified Hoffa's secretary by telephone that:

"We are in the hall. We have thrown out our corrupt officers. We are begging for help from the International or from the monitors."

Otto Frobe, secretary-treasurer of the local; Marshall Tucker, business agent, and John Curtsinger, trustee, suffered cuts and bruises in the fight.

The brawling started when R. Y. Culbertson, vice president of the local, announced a hearing for Willis Walts, co-chairman of the "rank and file" committee, was being postponed. Walts has been charged with fostering secession from the local, violation of membership oath and other misconduct.

Walts and his companions objected to a delay in the hearing and the fist swinging started.

The "rank and file" group locked the executive committee in their meeting rooms and then notified them to resign or get out. The executive committee left.

After the ruckus subsided Frobe issued a statement which said:

"The vicious attacks and beatings of the officers of Local 100 demonstrated again the type of hoodlumism represented by the Cincinnati pro-Hoffa Teamsters. Ever since they were beaten by a vote of the membership in a secret ballot election they have been trying to get control of Cincinnati truck drivers through terror and abuse.

"This has ranged from threats to kill and maim, a phony rate charge, deliberate breaking up of meetings, calling of unauthorized walkouts and now actual physical beatings. These are exactly the type of vicious tactics which have been exposed by the McClellan committee."

Constables to Hold Next Meeting Aug. 11

The Columbiana County Constables Association will meet Aug. 11 at 8:30 p.m. at County courtroom and John Wonner as hosts.

At a recent meeting, May and June reports were given by 22 constables from 20 townships. The reports totaled: Miles patroled, 13,869; accidents investigated, 25; warnings issued, 220; property recovered, $2907; telephone calls received, 467; breaking and entering, 13; civil papers served, 163; arrests made, 52; one suicide investigated and one armed robbery.

Six More Candidates File With County

Six more aspirants for township, village and school board posts at the Nov. 3 general election entered Wednesday with the county election board.

The new candidates include Arthur McDevitt, trustee of St. Clair Township; Roland G. Gorby, trustee of Middleton Township; Regis Scharf, clerk of Madison Township; John Dangelo for the Franklin Local Board of Education and George H. Wilson for Hanoverton Village Council.

The filing deadline for the nonpartisan offices is next Wednesday at 4 p.m.

CYCLIST IS INJURED

Robert Ray, 14, dislocated his left knee when he fell from his bicycle Wednesday evening while riding in a field. He is reported in good condition today in Salem City Hospital, where he was admitted at 9:30 p.m. Wednesday. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Ray of 1015 N. Lincoln Ave.

Sense of Security

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Looking for a sense of security? Bandleader Ted Steele gives a tip.

"Get interested in something besides your job," he advises. "Develop a hobby — and make it pay.

"This outside security even helps you in your career by giving you more peace of mind. It has worked for me. I have been 25 years in show business, and I have never been out of a job."

Steele, once a $65-a-month NBC page boy, now is in the six-figure income bracket. An all-around performer, he has written some 30 songs, made more than 100 recordings.

A vocalist, pianist and organist as well as a bandleader, he also doubles as an emcee and newscaster. Ted currently carries one of the heaviest schedules in the radio-TV field. He is on the air 25 hours a week.

But he has always believed in having "something outside" working for him. For years he ran a 300-acre dairy farm in Bucks County, Pa. He sold it when hired hands became too hard to find.

Now he operates two pet shops on the East Side here.

Between entertainment chores Steele likes to visit his shops, which stock everything from 5-cent guppies to 500 white poodles.

He finds it relaxing — and profitable — to spend an hour or so each day in this small world of singing mules — canaries crossbred with wild goldfinches; kissing gouramis — fish from Honolulu, and black Japanese waltzing mice.

"The pet shops give me an added feeling of security, too," he says. "I know that, if I had to, I could make a living from them."

Ted numbers among his clients doctors, dentists, many society notables, and such entertainment figures as Anna Magnani, June Valli, Carol Haney and Lloyd Nolan.

Pets with wealthy owners today live in a special world of privilege. Some dogs arrive in chauffeur-driven cars for a beauty treatment that can cost up to $25.

White poodles who like to wear toenail polish now have a choice of more than a dozen colors. The canine set also can put on the dog with its own txuedo collars, top hats, ankle bracelets, necklaces and cashmere sweaters.

'Many of the dogs have better wardrobes than their mistresses," said Steele.

Steele says his accountant is still grumbling over his decision to go into the pet business.

"He thought if I needed an outside interest I should get interested in telephone stocks.

'But telephone stock can't lick you in the face when you're feeling low."

Discrimination Provision Cut From Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee struck from a pending civil rights bill today President Eisenhower's proposal for a commission to enforce nondiscrimination in employment on government contracts.

The vote, taken behind closed doors, was reported to have been 16-12, not divided along party lines.

Committee sources, asking not to be quoted by name, said that not only Southern opposition, but fears that the provision might bring on conflicts with labor unions, figured in the discussions.

The committee, working to draft a bill for House consideration, approved continuation for two years from this fall of the Civil Rights Commission. This body, under present law, has busied itself mainly with complaints of violation of voting rights.

$10,000 Heir Not Disclosed

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP)—Identity of the person who fell heir to $10,000 by presentation of the torn half of a $1 bill may never be disclosed.

C. William O'Neill, former governor of Ohio and attorney for the holder of the bill, has declined to release the name of his client.

Provision for payment of the money was made in the will of Dr. Braden E. Nida of Marietta, who died July 5 at 62. The will merely authorized the administrator to pay $10,000, tax free, to the holder of the other half of a dollar bill numbered P1897517H.

The will has been admitted to probate but it was necessary for the administrator to report only that the terms of the will had been carried out. It was not necessary for him to know the identity of the bill holder.

—Making "Pastures" in the Ocean—

FOOD FOR THE FUTURE — Man has begun to take a closer look at his watery planet in this day of expanding populations and dwindling resources. Some say that the oceans one day will be the most important means of feeding the billions. But areas of the sea which are abundant with life are limited to places where a natural vertical circulation brings nutrients up from the bottom to the sunlit waters where plant and animal life can flourish. Vast other areas are virtual "deserts." To solve this problem and populate these unproductive sections, oceanographers of the National Academy of Sciences - National Research Council have suggested three possible methods, which are shown in simplified sketch above.

Grapefruit, Beets Team for Quick Salad

We all get the urge to "get out and do" during warm weather. And, because of this oftentimes the evening meal is sorely neglected. It needn't be for with a generous supply of canned foods on hand you can plan quick but wonderfully good meals.

Canned chicken fricassee, a heat-and-serve main dish, is an idea to top off your meus. Good served with the main dish is Grapefuirt Beet Surprise Salad. It colorfully combines vegetables and fruit.

Don't limit this delicious salad as a teammate with chicken—the flavor combination is equally delicious with meats and fish.

Grapefurit Beet Surprise Salad

1 can or jar (16 to 17 oz.) diced beets, ½ cup sliced celery, 1 tablespoon grated onion, ¼ cup French dressing, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon caraway seed (optional Salad greens, 1 can (1 lb.) grapefruit sections.

Mix together well drained beets, celery, onion, French dressing and seasonings; chill. Arrange salad greens on serving plates. Place mounds of beets in center of greens and arrange drained grapefruit sections in pinwheel fashion around the beets. Serve with additional French dressing. Four to five servings.

Guarding Your Health

By Dr. EDWIN P. JORDAN

TB Decline Shining Page In Medical History

Several of the brothers and sisters of my own grandparents died of tuberculosis, or what was then called consumption. No doubt a similar statement could be made by virtually every living person over the age of 40.

Since the turn of the century, however, the death rate from tuberculosis has dropped lower and lower.

There are many reasons. But before listing a few I should like to say something in reply to Mrs. F., who asks: "What are the symptoms of tuberculosis?"

Tuberculosis is a germ disease. The symptoms depend on what particular tissues of the body are invaded by the germs. The most common location is the lungs.

Most of us have had some tubercle bacilli, or germs, in our lung tissues but in most instances we have been able to wall them off and make them inactive. Thus we do not show any of the active symptoms of the disease.

When there are symptoms, the most frequent are cough with expectoration, fever, loss of weight and night sweats. However, the diagnosis is made primarily by means of X-ray film of the lungs and by finding the germs of tuberculosis in the sputum.

Naturally, the symptoms of tuberculosis elsewhere, such as invasion of the bone, produce different symptoms. But in almost all instances, either the X-ray or the identification of the germ by suitable laboratory methods are more accurate than symptoms alone.

The germs are spread from a person or animal who harbors them to a well person. Hence the improvement of sanitation and such measures as the prohibition of public spitting have undoubtedly served to lessen the dangers of catching the disease.

The general improvement in diet and the lessening of extreme poverty and overcrowding are other factors which are partly responsible for the improvement.

Furthermore, many patients with tuberculosis are spotted relatively early, treated and thus kept from infecting others.

There have been great improvements in treatment of tuberculosis. The value of bed rest has long been recognized and is still prescribed for those with active tuberculosis. Such measures as collapsing a diseased lung by injecting air is an added method of promoting "rest" of the diseased tissue.

In recent years, chemical treatments have brought new weapons to the hands of the physician treating tuberculosis. What to give, how often to give it, and to whom to give it are highly technical, but favorable results in many cases are beyond question.

Likewise, several new surgical procedures have proved useful for many victims of tuberculosis.

Boston Stops Cleveland 4-1 on Schroll's 6-Hitter

McLish Stopped At 8 In Row

Error by Baxes Allows Two Runs

CLEVELAND (AP) The Boston Red Sox have thrown a pitching roadblock across the Cleveland Indians' pennant path.

For the third straight day, the Bosox introduced a young hurler to the Indians and came away with a victory. First, it was rookie Jerry Casale, then sophomore Billy Monbouquette.

Wednesday night, Al Schroll, a 26-year-old rookie recalled from Minneapolis 10 days ago, halted the Indian on six hits and the Red Sox won, 4-1.

They stopped Cal McLish's eight game winning streak. McLish now has a 13-4 record. He gave up two runs—both on a single by Sammy White in the fourth inning.

White had four of the eight hits McLish surrendered.

The Red Sox added two unearned runs in the ninth inning off relief pitcher Al Cicotte. Both of the markers were unearned as Jim Baxes' error opened the gates. Marty ve in one run and l 's sacrifice fly delivered the other.

Malzone was robbed of two home runs as Minnie Minoso came up with two amazing catches to save four runs. Minoso pulled one drive out of the left field seats in the second inning, then leaped halfway over the fence to snare Malzone's other blast with two aboard in the fifth frame.

The only Cleveland run came in the third inning on a single by Ed FitzGerald, a sacrifice and Vic Power's single off Schroll's shins.

McLish lost for the first time since June 7. One of Cal's difficulties was lack of control as he walked five. By comparison, he had walked a total of four in his three previous games.

Schroll, on the other hand, didn't pass a single Cleveland batter and fanned five. He permitted only one man to advance past first base. That was FitzGerald.

The Indians, who have lost three of four to the upstart Red Sox and trail first place Chicago by one game, pitch Jim Grant today against Tom Brewer in the finale of this extended series. The Red Sox have moved out of last place with their new-found pitching.

Tito Rapping Ball at .400 Clip

Francona Gives Indians Powerful Clean-up Man

By HARRY GRAYSON

NEW YORK (NEA) — To win a pennant a club generally has to obtain help from unexpected sources, Cleveland got it, so the Indians have led the American League along the route.

In late March, Joe Gordon told the Cleveland baseball writers that Vic Power would be the Tribe's third baseman and Larry Doby the All-Star first baseman. Three days later, Frank Lane traded Doby to the Tigers for John Patsy Francona, a well-constructed Italiano who had been around and about and was beefing about not beig given a fair chance in the Detroit outfield.

General Manager Lane, who has made more shrewd swaps than David Harum, was panned unmercifully in Cleveland and elsewhere for "trading and established, if somewhat fading, star for a nonentity." While he was being criticized, Lane, in defense, pointed out that he had exchanged a 33-year-old player for one nine years younger who had shown definite signs that he might make it.

"What can I lose?" asked Trader Lane as the dissenters insisted that he was "either drunk or crazy."

If there is a position in baseball more important than shortstop it is center field and the Indians filled the two crucial spots from unexpected sources.

Tito Francona's bat not only drove Jimmy Piersall out of center field, but made the six-foot 185-pound resident of Aberdeen, S.D., the Cleveland clean-up man. Francona gave the Indians the fourth big hitter a club needs to prevail, swinging behind Power and Minnie Minoso and ahead of Rocky Colavito.

"He's adequate in the field, runs exceptionally well and has won at least 10 games with the bat," says Lane. "He's a left-hand pull hitter with power and the best thing about him is that he appears solid at the plate. If there is a weakness in his armor, it's his arm, but, then, how many runners are thrown out from the outfield these days? Colavito, for example, can throw the ball through a brick wall and accurately, but how many runners does he throw out from right field?"

As for the other half of the Francona barter, the last word on Doby was that the White Sox, who obtained him from the Tigers, had sent the veteran out for a physical examination.

Lane gives Manager Gordon 100 per cent credit for the sudden development of Woodie Held as a shortstop. Held kicked around in the Yankees' chain for several years and spent time with Kansas City without anyone determining whether he belonged in the infield or the outfield. He hit the ball for magnificent distance, but not often enough, and had a strong arm.

The Indians opened the season with George Strickland, back after a year's layoff at shortstop and Held at third base.

"I disagreed with Gordon when he kept saying that Held had more range at shortstop than Strickland," smiles Lane, "but he most certainly has and now is second defensively in the American League only to Luis Aparicio of the White Sox.

"Credit that to our Sacramento contingent. Gordon and the coach, Jo Jo White, Held and Ray Webster, our utility infielder, all live in Sacramento. Gordon and White worked Held at shortstop and Webster at second base three times a week all last off-season. Where are you going to find another manager who will work with his players like that?"

As said in the foregoing, generally speaking, a club wins the pennant because the cavalry has come galloping in.

Art Wall Jr. Is One Top Choice

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Slim and silent Art Wall Jr., a man with bitter memories of his struggling past, strives for the summit of his golfing career in the national PGA championship opening today.

The 35-year-old Pennsylvanian wasn't the favorite. No player could carry that designation in a bulging field of 174 that included more stars than ever assembled in 41 years of Professional Golfers Assn. competition.

But tournament pros invariably tossed Wall's name among the four or five most logical choices. And if Wall wins the 72-hole run at Minneapolis Golf Course, he virtually elects himself golfer of the year.

In seven months he has carted away some $50,000 in prize money, won four tournaments including the Masters and pulled into the lead in the Ryder Cup standings and the Vardon Trophy race based on average scoring.

At the 6,850-yard par 35-35—70 Minneapolis course his big bugbear may be the thinness of the fairways. Wall's baseball grip has made him a novelty, and also a big money winner, but it leads him to occasional spasms of wildness.

Also well liked in the pre-tournament guessing here was Mike Souchak, the amiable muscleman who is still looking for his first major tournament victory.

Don Finsterwald, winner of the PGA's first medal tournament last year, has not been at his best this year. But he has to rank among the strongest contenders. So do Gene Little, Sam Snead, Doug Ford, Cary Middlecoff and Tommy Bolt.

Senator Warns Baseball Head

Frick Pledges Full Support to 3rd Loop

WASHINGTON (AP) — American and National League clubs have been told that Congress will be forced to act if they throw any roadblocks into the organization path of a third major baseball league.

That word from Sen. John Carroll (D-Colo) came after Baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick had pledged full support of the preent major leagues for formation of a third circuit.

The subject of the projected Continental League came up Wednesday while Frick was testifying before the Senate Antimonopoly ubcommittee. The subcommittee is studying bill that would clarify the status of pro baseball, football, basketball and hockey under the antitrust laws.

Frick supported a measure that would exempt such pro practices as the player draft and contract reserve clauses from the antitrust laws. The strictly commercial aspects of the sports would be ubject to those laws under the bill.

Frick said he favored formation of another big league, adding it will not be simple or eay bsut will take "planning and cheming to bring it about."

Frick asked that baseball be left to work out the problem without interference from Congres.

Sens. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) asked where the new league would get its players. He has contended the major league teams have tied up many more players than they need and has proposed an 80-player limit for each club.

Frick said the new league would have all development rights now available to present clubs, adding they will acquire draft rights and rights of waivers, to negotiate, trade and purchase contract and to have working agreement with minor league clubs, he added he believed that with a development program there would be ample player talent within a few years to support a third big league.

Beginners Swim Class Opens Monday

The third and final session of beginners' swimming classes will get underway Monday at the Centennial Park pool.

Due to the large number of beginners expected to report, there will be no classes this session for intermediate swimmers. Inste a d, the daily morning sessions will be divided into two classes for beginners.

Children nine years of age and older will meet at 9 a.m. Monday at the pool. Those in the six to eight age group will meet at 10 a.m. The latter group will then be divided into two sessions with half meeting at 10 and the other half at 11 a.m. for the remainder of the three-week course.

The swimming program is sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Commission, in cooperation with the Red Cross.

Sportsmen May Once Again Hunt Quail In Buckeye State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Legislature passed more than a score of measures affecting the Department of Natural Resources, but there are three which sportsmen will find of immediate interest.

These include the Quail Act, which permits hunting of bobwhite for the first time in 46 years. The other two relate to boating on lakes and streams. One stiffens regulations of watercraft by enacting navigational laws to assume safe operation. The third orders the numbering and identification of all boats and reporting of all boating accidents.

Several others having direct effect will extend non-resident fishing licenses from 10 to 15 days, and offer joint fishing licenses for husband and wife for $3.25—$1 more than a single permit.

Franklin O. (Barney) Kugel is the new chief engineer of the Department of Natural Resources. He's a 33-year veteran of the state service. He'll supervie preparation of plans for all construction projects undertaken by various divisions.

The Wildlife Division says that despite a 60 per cent drop in the Lake Erie commercial catch of walleye pike this spring by Ohio fishermen, the total catch of all species combined for the first 2½ months of the 1959 season compare closely with last year's commercial haul. Through May 31, the reported catch was 10,305,000 pounds. Last year's catch for the same period was 10,371,000 pounds. The large drop in walleye production (3,065,000 pound in 1958, 1,247,000 in 1959) was offset by greater catches of yellow perch and sheepshead.

The Isaak Walton League of America urges "lowering the boom" on "slob" hunters this fall. Slobs are defined by the league a "hunters who trespass, trample crops, handle both fire and firearms carelessly and flaunt the letter and spirit of game laws."

The Ohio woodcock season opens Oct. 1 and close Nov. 7. Hunting is from a half hour before sunrise to sunset. The daily bag limit remains at four woodcock with eight in posession after the first day.

Vegetation control is under way in East Harbor, adjacent to the state park of the same name on Lake Erie. A mechanical cutter has opened several wide access channels through heavy beds of water milfoil. It will provide improved access to Lake Erie waters and to various fishing areas.

The Wildlife Division estimates that Ohio deer hunters will take about 1,000 fewer deer this year than in 1958. Eugene Knoder, forest game biologist, said the accidental deer kill is down and this indicates a lower deer population.

The Parma area of Greater Cleveland has produced some successful perch fishermen this year. A father - son combinatio- from Parma Heights, Albert Lark, and son Robert, recently teamed up to land a perch every two minutes while fishing a mile off Rocky River in Lake Erie. In five hours they boated 300. William Bartley and John Pentz of Parma pulled into the same Rocky River boat landing within a half hour of the Larks, having hooked 200 perch in a little more than two hours. They used minnows and worms. Albert Lark said "we could have landed 1,000, but we were using cheap hooks with poor barbs."

One-key control: only Chevy in its field has done away with fumbling for two or three keys. The same key unlocks the door, starts the engine, opens the glove box and trunk.

WHY DO WITHOUT THIS CONVENIENT LITTLE TOUCH... LET ALONE
THESE BIG CHEVY VIRTUES!

BIGGER BRAKES
Not only bigger, but built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life. Just to prove what's what, Chevy outstopped both of the "other two" in a NASCAR*-conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds.
*National Association for Stock Car Advancement and Research

GREATER ROOMINESS
Official dimensions reported to the Automobile Manufacturers Association make this point abundantly clear. For example, Chevy's front seat room is up to 5.9 inches wider than in comparable cars. And Chevy even offers more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars!

MOST ADVANCED ENGINES
We'll let SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED talk about Chevy's standard passenger car and Corvette V8's: "Indeed, this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price." And every motor magazine concurs! There are eight V8's to pick from—the widest choice in Chevy's field.

FRESH STYLING
POPULAR SCIENCE magazine's experts took one look and said, "In its price class, Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling."

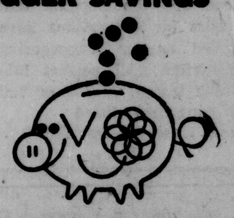

HIGHER TRADE-IN
N.A.D.A.* Guide Books carry the proof of Chevy's extra trade-in value. They show that Chevrolet used car prices last year averaged up to a solid $128 higher than comparable models of the other two cars in Chevy's field!
*National Automobile Dealers Association

FULL COIL RIDE
You've almost got to find a really rocky road to show off Chevy's easygoing ride to full advantage. MOTOR TREND magazine gives you an idea though: ". . . the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class."

BIGGER SAVINGS

Two Chevrolets packing our pennypinching 6 with Powerglide delivered a whopping 22.38 mpg in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, winning the first two places in their class and walking away with top honors among all full-size cars. How can you argue with a figure like that?

Dodgers Dump Pirates 2-0

Philadelphia Tops San Francisco 3-1

By The Associated Press

It was Lo Angeles and Milwaukee who were hit hard by injury, but it's the San Francisco Giants who are hurtin', blowing a 2½-game lead and giving up the National League lead to the Dodgers.

Los Angeles, winning four of six with slugger Gil Hodges sidelined, hit the top for the first time since May 12 Wednesday night, beating Pittsburgh 2-0 as Roger Craig's six-hitter tumbled the Pirates to their ninth straight loss.

That left the Giants, losing four in a row for the first time this season in a 3-1 defeat by last place Philadelphia, a half-game behind the Dodgers and only a half-game ahead of Milwaukee. The third place Braves, who had been without homer-hammering Eddie Mathews for seven games, closed in with an 8-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Cincinnati whipped St. Louis 9-2 in the other NL game.

In the American League, Chicago's first place White Sox were held to a 4-4, six-inning tie by rain and the New York Yankees, but gained a full-game lead over Cleveland. The Indians were beaten 4-1 by Boston and a six-hitter by Al Schroll, whose only other major league victory came in a National League relief role for the Phillies last April. Kansas City, running up the longest streak in the majors since 1956, made it 10 in a row with a 5-4 victory over Washington. Baltimore beat Detroit 5-1.

With Hodges, their home run leader, out with a bum ankle, the Dodgers clipped the Bucs and Vern Law (11-7) in the eighth inning on a two-out single by .230-hitter Joe Pignatano and a double by .169-hitter Don Zimmer. The Dodgers had been blanked on four hits by Law until Duke Snider's single and a walk opened the eighth.

Craig, the right-hander, who helped boost the Dodgers to their only world championship as a mid-season rookie in 1955, now has a 6-2 record since being reclaimed from the minors last month.

The Braves, regaining Mathews for the first time since he injured his hip a week ago, beat the Cubs in a home run duel between Hank Aaron and Ernie Banks. Both hammered a pair. Aaron drove in the Braves' first three runs against loser Dave Hillman (5-8) with his 25th and 26th. Banks, tying Mathews for the NL lead with 29, drove in the Cubs' first four runs against Lew Burdette (14-10), who needed Don McMahon's hitless, three-inning mop-up after Sammy Taylor's solo homer in the seventh.

The pesky Phillies managed just three hits off outhpaw Johnny Antonelli, but two were homers by Ed Bouchee and Gene Freese. Don Cardwell (5-6) went all the way and allowed the Giants just six hits, one Orlando Cepeda's 21st home run.

Antonelli (14-6) had won eight in a row from the Phils since 1957. He now has lost two in a row and is winless in his last three starts.

The Reds moved within a game of the sixth-place Cardinals by breaking a 2-2 tie in the third against loser Larry Jackson (8-9) on Frank Robinson's double and Ed Bailey's single. They made it a rout with six runs in the eighth while lefty Joe Nuxhall (4-8), who had lost six straight, blanked St. Louis on four hits over the last eight frames.

Athletics Win 10th In Row

Kansas City Tops Senators 5-4

By The Associated Press

How hot is hot? Well, the two pennant races are hot, what with rain and a rookie giving Chicago's White Sox a one-game edge in the American League and Los Angeles taking a half-game lead in the National.

But the Kansas City A's? Man, they're blazin', rolling up 10 straight for a winning streak that han't been topped in the AL since mid-1956. It's jumped them from last to within a half-game of third.

They did it with a 5-4 victory over Washington Wednesday night that plunked the Senators into the cellar with 11 straight loses, tops among the worst in the majors this season.

No team has had a better winning string than the A's in the AL since the New York Yankee won 11 straight in '56.

The White Sox padded their slim edge when rain and the Yankees held them to a 4-4, six-inning tie after rookie Al Schroll had pitched Boston out of the cellar with a six-hitter for a 4-1 victory over second-place Cleveland. It was Schroll's first complete game in the majors and ended Cal McLish's winning streak at eight.

Third-place Baltimore beat Detroit 5-1 in the only day game.

Los Angeles moved into the NL lead for the first time since May 12 with a 2-0 victory over Pittsburgh as Roger Craig handed the Pirates their ninth straight loss with a six-hitter. Last - place Philadelphia managed just three hits, but tumbled San Francisco to second by beating the Giants 3-1. Milwaukee remained third, a game behind, with an 8-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Cincinnati beat St. Louis 9-2.

The A's, still 8½ games short of first place after picking up 3½ games since their blast off two weeks ago, decked the Nats in the first three innings. Dick Williams, who drove in three runs, hit a two - run homer off loser Bill Fischer (8-6) in the first. He singled home another in a three-run third.

The White Sox broke a 2-2 tie with two runs in the fifth on Luis Aparicio' triple and an infield out, then needed a leaping stab by left fielder Al Smith on Hector Lopez' shot to the wall to escape defeat in the sixth after Yogi Berra's two-run, two-out homer had tied it again.

Schroll, a right - hander who gained his first major league victory in the National League with Philadelphia last April, evened his AL record at 1-1 while walking none and striking out five. The Red Sox, who had lost six straight to McLish (13-4) since last season, won it on Sammy White's two-out, two-run single in the fourth.

Baltimore beat Pal Foytack (9-9) with three unearned runs in the first two innings while youngsters Jerry Walker (8-5) and Milt Pappas combined for a six-hitter against the Tigers.

Sager Races At Canfield On Saturday

A surprise entry in the MARC new car race at Canfield Speedway is one of the former stars of Midwest racing, Bucky Sager of Toledo.

Sager is well-known to district fans for his victory in the 1954 Canfield Speedway 200-Lap Memorial Day Classic.

Later Sager broke his jaw in an accident and retired from racing. He decided to make a comeback this season and has again proved to be one of the outstanding stock car drivers in the Midwest. He will bring in a 1958 Ford for the five-race new car program on Saturday night.

Don Trees of Columbus is another former Canfield star who will return. He also will drive a 1958 Ford.

Two other Columbus pedal pushers will also see action. They are Paul Parks who will drive a 1958 Ford and Bob Bower in a 1958 Plymouth.

Nelson Stacy of Cincinnati will be on hand as he hopes to maintain his slim point leadership. The defending MARC champion will be driving a 1959 Chevrolet.

Redlegs Win Second In Row From Cards 9-2

Nuxhall Hurls Seven-Hitter

Cincinnati Tallies 6 Runs In Eighth

CINCINNATI (AP) — Maybe Manager Fred Hutchinson is scanning birth records of the Cincinnati Reds to see if any of the players have a birthday coming up.

If there are, it's very likely they'll be used tonight when the Reds close a four-game series against St. Louis.

Jerry Lynch was 29 on July 17. The night before, against the Cardinals, he celebrated by getting four hits, including a home run, and four RBI as Cincinnati won, 7-5.

Pitcher Joe Nuxhall, who has been getting his lumps this year, was 31 today. Wednesday night he too did a little premature celebrating. Against those same Cards he got his first pitching victory since June 4. Score was 9-2.

Joe, who had lost six straight, allowed seven hits, truck out three and walked only one.

He never was in serious trouble after the first inning.

The victory left the Reds only a game behind the sixth place Cards.

Nuxhall had to be good because from the third inning until the eighth he had only a 3-2 lead.

The Cards, in the top of the eighth, however, lifted their starter Larry Jackson for a pinch hitter. In its half Cincinnati blew the game apart with six runs off relievers Lindy McDaniel and Jack Urban.

The Reds got 10 hits all told.

The Cardinals got to Nuxhall for a pair of quick runs in the first on singles by Don Blasingame and Alex Grammas and a triple by Gino Cimoli.

Cincinnati tied it in the second and took the 3-2 lead in the third. In the second, Willie Jones walked and Roy McMillan was hit by a pitch. Nuxhall doubled Jones home and McMillan tallied on Johnny Temple's sacrifice fly.

The third inning run came as Frank Robinson doubled and scored on Ed Bailey's single.

Cincinnati's eighth inning outburst ran this way:

With McDaniel pitching, Vada Pinson singled and stole second Gus Bell sacrificed him to third. Robinson was walked intentionally but Lynch scored Pinson with a single. Robinson then scored and Lynch went to second on a wild pitch. Bailey walked and Jones doubled Lynch and Bailey home.

That brought on Urban. He walked McMillan intentionally. Nuxhall fanned but Temple's infield single filled the bases and Pinson singled Jones and McMillan home.

Richmond Dumps Rochester 10-6

By The Associated Press

The Richmond Vees aren't giving an inch in that battle for second place in the International Leage. Frank Leja is seeing to that.

The big first baseman led the Vees to victory over Rochester, 10-6, Wednesday night while Havana defeated Montreal, 3-1. Both are tied for second, 8½ games behind Buffalo, which beat Columbus 12-8. Miami defeated Toronto 6-5 in 11 innings.

Leja homered Tuesday night to spark the Vees to a victory and this time teamed with Bob Deakin, each getting a pair of two-run homers.

Buffalo zoomed to an 11-0 lead after two innings with Ken Leman (8-6) getting the victory over the Jets' Al Jackson (7-3).

East Palestine Hands Legion 5-0 Setback

In a tuneup game for Saturday's Sectional Tournament play in Wooster, the Salem American Legion nine was shut out 5-0 Wednesday night at Centennial Park by the East Palestine A.C.

The visitors collected all five runs in the first two innings off starting pitcher Tim Burchfield. Dave Hunter relieved for Salem in the second and he and Don Davidson hurled shut out ball the rest of the way. Davidson also collected Salem's only two hits, a pair of singles.

Hunter is expected to be the starting pitcher Saturday when the Legion takes on Goshen in the Class D finals of the Sectional Hot Stove League tourney.

Boysaw Wins Unanimously Over Elorde

CLEVELAND (AP)—Unbeaten Solomon Boysaw moved up in the lightweight standings with a unanimous 10-round decision over Gabriel Elorde of the Philippines Wednesday night.

The Cleveland buzzsaw admitted he was rusty after a five-month layoff and was slow getting started. But in the final five rounds he found the range with right hand shots to the head and boosted his string to 21 victories and one draw.

A disappointing crowd of 1,058 paid a gross of $1,259 for the nationally-televised lightweight battle.

Referee Lou Parker and Judges Herb Williams and Charley Bill all gave the nod to Boysaw, 48-43.

Boosters Officers Plan Meeting Tonight

Boosters Club officers, directors and those selling promotion for the 1959 Salem High School footb a l l programs are requested by President A. P. Schmauch to meet in the Memorial Building at 7 tonight to give progress reports.

Monday 'Adults Only' Night At City Pool

The Centennial Park swimming pool will be reserved for adults only again from 7 to 9 p.m. on Monday.

Sixteen adults attended the first such session last Monday and the Park Commission officials announced plans to continue the program as long as there is sufficient interest.

Pitching — Roger Craig, Dodgers, put Los Angeles back in the National League lead by shutting out the Pirates on six hits, walking only one and striking out seven for 2-0 victory.

Interest Rates Problems of Prosperity

It's Your Pocketbook

By FAYE HENLE

A lot is being said and written about interest rates these days.

Interest rates mean two things to you:

What you pay for the use of money when you borrow it, and:

What your money earns for you either in a bank savings account or when you buy bonds.

Right now, there is a serious inequity, so far as interest rates are concerned, and the effect this has upon those of us whose incomes are modest and whose expenses are climbing.

Interest rates are up when we borrow. This is because there is a record demand for money.

What about the interest rate when we try earning it?

If you have several hundred dollars to invest and lend it to a private corporation or the government, your return today is handsome. On treasury bills, for instance, your return can exceed 4 per cent. From some U.S. Treasry Bonds you can get close to 5 per cent, the highest rate of interest paid since 1929.

But, if you don't have several hundred dollars to invest at one clip, or if you are among that solid army of citizens who loyally buy U.S. Savings Bonds on payday, you are plain out of luck so far. Your return is 3¼ per cent, the same that it has been for the past two years.

There reposes currently in Congressional committee legislation to increase the rate of interest payable on all U.S. Savings Bonds—those now outstanding and those to be issued—and to make this increase retroactive to June 1 of his year.

However, it appears this bit of lawmaking is merely resting with no knowledge, so far as I can determine, of when the new interest rate might become law or how much of an increase might be granted.

I have been talking to government men about this situation.

My friends at the Fedeal Reserve Bank frankly state that they are worried about what they call the problems of prosperity. They don't like to see the cost of money to the borrower rising in any event and they especially don't like to see it rise because the lender feels that the puchasing power of his dollar is declining.

Also, they state that they don't like the step-up they see in the volume of loan requests. Compeing with the Treasury, which will be borrowing in large volume during the next six months, are business enterprises and the consumer. We've already been told that consumer loans are at a three-year peak. What has not yet been tabulated is the amount of business borrowing that is coming from nonmetropoltan centers around the country.

And, over at the Savings Bond division of the Treasury, all is not gaiety either. Here I've got friends that frankly admit they are in a spot. They would like to see more of us sharing both in the burden of helping the government get the money that it needs and they would like to see us enjoy a better return on our small investments.

In their own words, they'd like to be out selling a product that they could wholeheartedy endorse. They hope—and we hope—that son they will be able to do this.

Vary Hamburgers With Potato Chips

Even hamburgers can be different. That's where potato chips get into the act.

Hamburger Balls on Potato Chips (Serves 10-12)

Two pounds hamburger, 1 large onion, minced fine; 1 egg, beaten; 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1 teaspoon caraway seeds, 1 7-ounce bag potato chips (reserve 4 dozen large chips).

Crush potato chips very fine with a rolling pin. Mix hamburger, egg and seasonigs. No salt is needed. Form into 48 small bite-size balls and roll in the crushed chips. Press the chips well onto the balls. Saute in large frying pan in 1 tablespoon hot margarine. Roll the meat balls over and over in the pan by shaking the pan frequently. Cook 5 minutes for rare or 7 minutes for medium. Crisp the large potato chips in a 75-degree F. oven while you are cooking the mat balls and serve a meat ball on each.

To give chicken a difference, try marinating it before cooking. U.S. Department of Agriculture cooking experts suggest these methods:

Use a simple marinade of salad oil and vinegar. Or it can be oil, vinegar and juice, such as lemon or the juice poured off watermelon pickles. For a zesty marinade, steep some red pepper pods in the vinegar for about 10 mingtes. For mild flavor, marinate for an hour; for a zestier flavor, as much as 24 hours.

While marinating, keep your chicken in the refrigerator and turn several times. Then remove from the marinade and wipe off excess moisture. You can fry it the usual way. Or broil or barbecue, using the marinade as a basting sauce. Marinating will also make your chicken even more tender.

Fruit, Cottage Cheese Combine in Salad

Looking for a "new look" in salads? Then try this Fruit and Cottage Cheese Ring.

It's the latest style for taste appeal. With or without your favorite fruit salad dressing, it still is delicious.

Fruit and Cottage Cheese Ring

1 can (1 lb.) fruit cocktail, 1 package (3 oz.) lime flavored gelatin, ¾ cup ginger ale, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 cups creamed cottage cheese, drained, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, ¼ cup chopped pecans.

Drain fruit cocktail. Measure cocktail juice and add enough water to equal 1 cup. Heat and completely dissolve the lime gelatin in this hot liquid. Remove from heat and add ginger ale. Divide into two equal parts. Add lemon juice and drained fruit to one part. Pour into 5½ cup ring mold. Chill until firm.

Blend together the drained cottage cheese and mayonnaise. Add pecans and remaining gelatin. Pour over congeled fruit layer. Chill until firm. Serve on lettuce lined plate, with or without a dressing. It's delicious either way. Makes eight servings.

Salmon Brightens Summertime Menus

Salmon is one of the staples of our diet, offering vitamins and minerals for summer menus. The King, Chinook or Spring salmon is the largest of the salmon family, weighing about 22 pounds, color ranging from deep red to pinkish white. It is soft in texture, rich in oil and flavor. It separates into large flakes, making it desirable for salads.

The Red, Sockeye or Blueback Salmon weighs about seven pounds, with flesh a deep red in color and firm in texture. It is one of the favorites with fisherman of the Pacific Northwest.

The Caho or River salmon averages eight to nine pounds some run as high as 30 pounds. The flesh is firm, red but lighter in color than Sockeye. It is an all-purpose salmon. The pink or Humpback salmon is the smallest of all salmon, averaging four pounds, ranging in color from light to deep pink. It is appropriate for creaming, casseroles, shoups, sandwiches.

Chum or Keta salmon, weighing about nine pounds, are large-flanked salmon, coarser in texture and less delicate in flavor then the pink. They are of great value in cooked dishes where color is unimportant.

In canning salmon, nothing is added to the can with the fish except salt. The liquid contained in the can is juice, and the oil coming from the fish itself during the cooking process should be used, says one packer, Sam Rubinstein of the Pacific Northwest group of salmon fishermen.

He suggests adding it directly to cold, flaked salmon, to sauces, fish chowders and other salmon dishs to reap the full benefits of the salmon.

Unopened cans stored in moderate temperatures may keep indefinitely. Once cans are opened, keep contents covered and refrigerated. Salmon may be kept in its original can in the refrigerator. The can itsel is just as safe as any other container.

Polynesian 'Steak' Is Outdoor Barbecue

The old-time portable camp stoves with canned heat or propane gas cylinders have improved modern variaties. It's smart once again to use fuels of this type for patio cooking.

The amateur outdoor chef has only to light a burner with a singe match and the fuel is ready to us. One new appliance, with propane gas cylinders, even has tiles which, when heated, give off a fragrance like charcoal smoke.

The chafing dish is also coming again into its own, this time as a porch or patio appliance. Especially recommended for oriental dishes.

Chinese, Japanese and Polynesian recipes all call for finely-cut ingredients which cook quickly and can be prepared easily at table.

The flame of an alcohol burner is instantly ready and easy to control. (This is a good summer tip for those who have wondered what to do with the handsome Christmas gift chafing dish gathering dust on the shelf.)

An excellent adaptation of a Polynesian "steak" is made with round steak, sliced paper thin, marinated in a mixture of Danish cherry Kijafa wine, garlic and spices.

This, cooked in a chafing dish, will be ready to seve in about 5 minutes. Rice previously cooked, can be heated in the upper pan of the chafing dish, held above the simmering sauce.

Polynesian Steak (Makes 4 servings)

Have ¾ pound top round steak sliced paper thin by butcher. Marinate in mixture of 1 tablespoon soy sauce, ⅛ teaspoon powdered ginger, 1 crushed garlic clove, ½ teaspoon salt and ½ cup Danish cherry wine.

To cook steak, melt 3 tablespoons butter in blazer pan of chafing dish.

Remove meat from marinade, add a few pieces at a time to butter, quickly brown on each side until all is cooked. Then push meat to one side of pan, add 3 chopped scallions, cook 1 minute.

Add the marinade and sprinkle in a pinch of nutmeg and of curry powder. Bring just to boil; simmer gently.

Now reheat cooked rice by placing it in upper pan of chafing dish; cover, place above the simmering suce. Serve the steak and sauce with the hot cooked rice.

Bake Sand Tarts, Blueberry Squares

You'll like thse lively blueberry tea squares. And if you are still in a baking mood, try the vanilla-almond sand tarts.

Spiced Blueberry Tea Squares (Yield: 24, two-inch squares)

Sift 1¾ cups sifted all-purpose flour, 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon ground ginger, and ½ teaspoon ground numeg and set aside. Cream 1-3 cup shortening with 1 cup sugar until fluffy.

Beat in 2 eggs, one at a time. Add flour mixture alternately with 2-3 cup milk. Mix together 1½ cups fresh blueberries, 2 tablespoons flour, and 1 tablespoon sugar and stir into the batter.

Turn into a well-greased, lightly floured 12x8x1-inch baking pan. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 35 to 40 minutes or until done. Cut into squares.

Vanilla-Almond Sand Tarts (Yield: about 7 dozen cookies)

Sift 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour and 1 cup sugar into a mixing bowl large enough for mixing cookies. Add 2-3 cup butter or margarine, and cut it in until the mixture resembles coarse meal.

Combine 1 lightly beaten egg, 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract, ½ teaspoon pure almond extract and 1 tablespoon cold water. Stir into the dry mixture. Mix well.

Drop dough, ½ teaspoon at a time, 2 inches apart onto ungreased cookie sheets. Flatten to 1-16-inch thickness with a glass covered with a damp cloth.

Mix 2 tablespoons sugar with ½ teaspoon ground cinnamon or nutmeg. Sprinkle a dash over each cookie. Bake in a preheated hot oven (400 degrees F.) 6 to 8 minutes or until lightly browned.

Spuds and Eggs Spanish Style

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Newsfeatures Food Editor

Probably every country has its favorite way of preparing good old potatoes.

The Irish mash the spud, couple it with chopped cooked green cabbage, add butter and seasonings and call it Colcannon. That combination once served at a turkey dinner at our house keeps getting steady calls for repeats from family and friends.

The French put the potato in a soup along with leeks and stock, cream and seasonings. This soup served cold is so delicious it has become an American summertime stape.

The Danes like their potatoes small and well-shaped, and they peel and boil them. Next sugar goes into a skillet to be caramelized; after that butter.

Then the potatoes are dumped into the sugar-butter mixure and turned with a spatula until gold and shiny. This we relished more than once in Copenhagen.

The Germans dote on potato pancakes—satisfying affairs for which the vegetable is mixed with eggs, salt and pepper and a suspicion of flour.

Fried to a golden brown in hot fat and served with applesauce, eaters like to eat dozens of them.

The Spainiards have a simple way with potatoes, onions and eggs plus seasonings and olive oil that they call a tortilla. Outside of Spain this dish is usually called an omelet; but it has no resemblance to the puffy egg mixture served with tomato sauce that Americans call Sanish omelet.

The flavor in this tortilla comes from the slow cooking of the vegetables with a generous amount of olive oil before the egg is added.

When we cooked a tortilla by the following rule for lunch, our nephew and a sister joined us—but we all liked it so much that two os us could have finished it off by ourselves!

Tortilla

Ingredients: 1 large onion, 2 medium-sized potatoes, tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, 4 large eggs (well beaten).

Method: Chop peeled onion and potaotes into ¼-inch cubes. Heat black iron skillet (9 inches); add olive oil and heat. Add onions and potatoes.

Cook over very low heat until tender, chopping with a sharp knife as they cook and turning occasionally. (Do not brown.)

When tender, mix in salt; drain off excess oil. Add about one-third of the beaten eggs to the pan, lifting up as mixture sets to allow moist egg to run under.

When this part of the egg is solid, add another third of the beaten egg, lifting in the same way; finally repeat with remaining egg.

Keep heat as low as possible, using an asbestos pad under skillet if necessary. When a golden crust has formed, loosen omelet all around edge and underneath with spatula; invert plate over top of pan; turn out upside down on plate.

Clean out any bits sticking to pan; rub with a little olive oil, then slide the omelet back in again, moist side down.

Cook as before until solid. Makes 3 servings.

Note: If you wish, you may cut mixture into 4 pieces in skillet, after crust has formed; then turn each wedge with a wide spatula to brown top side.

OBSTRUCTION BILL

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—You can get a traffic ticket in Pennsylvania for baby shoes—if they're hanging from the rear view mirror of your car.

Gov. David L. Lawrence signed into law Tuesday a bill which prohibits placing or hanging any object in such a way that it obstructs a driver's vision.

SLIMY TIE UP

TOKYO (AP) — Six policemen were summoned to a slimy traffic jam today — 300 eels wriggling all over an intersection. The eels landed in the street when a trolley and a fishmonger's truck collided. It took half an hour for police to collect them.

DiSalle Names Miss McGovern to Utilities Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle Wednesday named State Rep. Frances McGovern, Akron Democrat, to the Public Utilities Commission.

Miss McGovern, an attorney, was named to complete the unexpired term ending Feb. 1, 1961, of Edward J. Kenealy of Cleveland. Kenealy, a Democrat, was appointed Tuesday to succeed Ralph A. Winter of Lodi, whose term expired last Feb. 1.

DiSalle previously named Kenealy chairman of the three-member commission, effective Aug. 3.

The governor explained that Kenealy was shifted to a full six-year term on the commission because he feels the chairman should have long tenure.

Miss McGovern will resign from the Legislature to join the commission, DiSalle told newsmen. Salaries of commission members are $16,000 a year. The third member is Everett H. Krueger, Cleveland Republican. His term expires Feb. 1, 1961.

The governor said Miss McGovern sponsored a bill in the Legislature to revise Ohio's utility rate formula. The measure got nowhere.

"I think she showed a very good grasp of the problems confronting the commission," DiSalle said.

"I feel that she will be fair and that she will also be very firm."

DiSalle also announced the appointment of Isaac Walton of Wellston to the Reclamation Board of Review for a term ending July 23, 1964. Walton replaced Layton S. DeLauter as a strip-mining representative on the board.

A — A pound of figs has high fuel value because it contains 1,500 calories. This is one-half greater than that of a pound of steak.

Q — How does the greyhound hunt?

A — The greyhound hunts by sight instead of scent, for it is fast enough to keep the game in view.

TANGANYIKA, AFRICA

Here on the East African coast, 10,000 miles from London, "Mafia" is the name of a lovely little island south of nearby Zanzibar, ruled by a friendly old 'sultan. Graceful scows glide in with lumps of tropical cargo picked up at the mouths of creeks and smaller harbors up-coast. And the sunlit air is jammed full of dark Communist propaganda and disguised Russian missions and operatives are re-exploring Africa as Dr. Livingstone never thought it could be done. They're working their way underground.

Victor Riesel

After piecing together hundreds of documents and the answers to thousands of questions, the pattern of Soviet undercover operation on this strategic continent begins to come through.

Start up in Prague, Czechoslovakia. There you have 'he special African schools which are the extension of Moscow's special African central bureau. It's to these Czech training centers that carefully selected African actionists, terrorists and propagandists go.

FREQUENTLY they come in from something called the African Assn., headquarters on Kismet st, across the Nile in the fashionable embassy area of Cairo.

There on Kismet st, in the Aamalek district are 14, perhaps 15 such specialists. They are bright African Communists. They are well paid by the Egyptian government and are run by a handful of Egyptian secretaries who take their orders from Moscow — no matter what you read about Nasser pouting at Khrushchev.

There is, for example, a Mau Mau who broadcasts in Swahili from Cairo 35 hours a week. He beams his stuff at this East Coast and the capital of Tanganyika, is a far off corner of which the remnants of the terroristic secret African society till hide and still bide their time.

And now we will move south as the sun rises in the east over the Red sea of propaganda. We come to Addis Ababa where the Russians for years have run a "compound" virtually unknown to the West.

In this 'compound" Soviet intellectuals have woowed bright young Ethiopians. Many of the bearded Emperor's educated young men were befriended by the men and sent on to Moscow.

This is the technique used by the Kremlin in China and India. Woo them and send them on to Moscow and Prague for further fraternization.

THAT'S WHY it was a simple matter to have the young palace guard subtly move Haile Selassie into Moscow and that hundred million dollar loan at just the right moment. That cultural compound of the Russians should not be confused with the Soviet Embassy in Addis Ababa.

And now we have for you Eritrea, for many years a federated part of Ethiopia. That's about 12,000 miles from Middletown, U.S.A.—but not for a lot of American boys serving at the big U.S. air base radar sta'ion not too far from the key Eritrean port of Massawa.

This is on the Red Sea. Anyone who controls it outflanks the huge oil deposits in sultanates some 250 miles across this sea. They would also outflank our base and the strategic airfields at the Eritrean capital,, Asmara, 75 miles distant.

For the moment Eitrea is ruled by Emperor Selassie. Soon it gets its independence. At that time, in 1960 probably, the Russians will be in place to pull a coup.

Why? How?

Well, for 18 months now a big Polish Communist industrial and purchasing mission has been rolling up and down Eritrea. It has been seeking a site for a meat processing and canning plant. It simply can't make up its collectivized mind. It just goes up and down mapping the terrain, examining strategic rails and villages and talking to the people until it knows every inch.

OF COURSE, this is a Soviet intelligence operation. In some similar fashion the Russians are taking stock of what was the old Somaliland. This terirtory gets its independence next year.

There are Somali tribes, of course, in FrenchSomalilandand course, in French Somaliland and over in Kenya. Soon you'll hear an outcry for unity of the entire Somali people.

This will throw France and England into another African controversy. And maybe another small African war. That's what the Communist apparatus is brewing for all of us here in East Africa.

Sure it's far away and has all those funny names. But so is China. And there's nothing funny about "funny" names like Mao Tse-tung. Korea once seemed so far off, too.

DOG TAKES STRIKE

HAYS, Kan. (AP)—Tina, a 6-pound toy Manchester, is the heroine of Hays.

The dog leaped in front of a child Wednesday and took the strike of a rattlesnake. Tina has a badly swollen head, but she'll recover.

J. W. Shocknessy Gets Sixth Term

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—James W. Shocknessy of Columbus, the only chairman the Ohio Turnpike Commission has ever had, today was re-elected to his sixth consecutive two-year term.

Other commission officers also were re-elected at a meeting marked by concern about turnpike speed violations and the number of accidents involving sleepy drivers.

Shocknessy directed C. W. Hartford, the turnpike's executive director, to the State Highway Patrol the commission "doesn't want any indulgence allowed with respect to violations of law."

Hartford reported the use of radar to catch speeders, which was started July 3, probably will be expanded.

O. L. Teagarden of Oak Harbor was re-elected to his sixth term as vice chairman. Maj. Gen. Robert S. Beightler of Columbus was reelected secretary-treasurer.

Miss Lemey Counselor For Crippled Children

Marsha Joan Lemley of RD 1, East Palestine will serve as a counselor during the Crippled Children's Camp Pittenger during August, it is announced by C. H. Klippel, director of this Easter Seal camp sponsored by the Ohio Society for Crippled Children.

Miss Lemley, a student at Muskingum College, preparing for a career in speech therapy, will serve along with a team of 28 counselors and the assistant director.

Camp Pittenger is located near McCutchenville in Seneca County, on 30 acres of wooded countryside in the beautiful Sandusky River Valley.

85,000 Made Idle By Steel Dispute

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The number of workers laid off in allied industries because of the 16-day-old steel strike has risen to about 85,000 with hundreds more slated for furloughs before the week ends.

The Pennsylvania Labor & Industry Dept. reported Wednesday that 9,840 names have been added to its list of workers laid off in businesses that depend on an active steel industry.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad said it would furlough 1,200 more employes by the end of the week because of the steel strike and plant shutdowns for vacations. The Illinois Central Railroad said it would lay off 1,100 workers Friday.

Hissing Sound Warns Firemen

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Firemen, alerted by a hissing sound, left a burning warehouse today moments before it exploded.

There were no injuries in the blaze, but damage was estimated by Fire Chief Alfred Nickley at $25,000.

Two fire companies were pouring water into the burning structure, where tar paper and shingles are stored by the Lorain Roofing Co., when one fireman heard the hissing noise. He shouted a warning and firemen withdrew from the building.

The explosion showered the area with bricks and knocked down three walls. One wall fell on a fire department truck, crushing it.
